Paving Project Aired

A public hearing on a street assessment program set for portions of North Cameron drew about 22 citizens Tuesday evening to the city council meeting.

Questions were answered by Tom Anderlich, president of Texas Securities Corp., the firm doing the legal work and financing.

Questions included some on crowning and dips in streets and drainage, and more than one on the intentions of Bell Telephone about installing underground cables in the area. Residents were assured that the phone company had said it was through with the work in Cameron and has no immediate plans to install underground lines in the area.

Another resident questioned paving on his street which he said now has good paving. He was told that street was included in the paving.

Goodhue Smith spoke for the country club, asking that the street along that property be excluded as paving would not enhance the property. Council said it would not be fair to the people across the street.

Other questions dealt with width of streets and maintenance. Residents were also told that work will start hopefully within 60 days.

HOMES FOR ELDERLY

A. W. McCullin, CDA director, said his office is filing an application with HUD for a 50-unit, two-story with elevators, housing project for the elderly.

He said location would be on the old Wolfe property and the units would be built by the federal government then turned over to the Cameron Housing Authority for operation.

Charlie Kunz was appointed to the Housing Authority board; and council accepted a high bid of $376 from John Brasher for a used van.

In a 3-2 vote, council approved going ahead with legal work on extending the city limits. Tommy Corley said he opposed the move since the city is not prepared at this time to give proper service to citizens in the annexed areas. He and Lincoln Mondrik voted against the motion, with Dale Smith, Ernest Moore, and Jan Luecke voting for it.

Council approved appointment of Mrs. Ed Lehmann, Mrs. Becky Magre, Jeff Webster and Mrs. Virginia Sanders to the library board; heard the second reading of an ordinance creating an airport zoning board; and declined an offer by Perry Holder to sell property for a cemetery extension.

Bids will be sought on a machine to control mosquitoes and bids will also be advertised for sale of a lot next to Chili's.

Guilty Pleas Net Prison Terms For Three Men

Three Cameron men pleaded guilty to burglary in district court May 13 and were sentenced to terms in the Texas Department of Corrections, according to County Atty. John B. Henderson Jr.

Melton Crawford Jr. was convicted of burglarizing the Walton Warschak store in Burlington on June 22, 1976. He received a three year sentence. Kenneth Teal was sentenced to serve five years in prison for breaking and entering the same store on April 10, 1977.

David Earl Halpain was sentenced to three years in prison for burglarizing the Warschak store on April 10, 1977.

Crawford will be transferred to Huntsville this week. Teal and Halpain will be transferred to Bell County where they will stand trial on the charge of burglary of a habitation.

Trustees Hold Hearing For Student

The Cameron school board, in a 3-2 decision, voted Monday night not to reinstate a Yoe High student into the band and cheerleader squad after she was disciplined for an incident that occurred on a recent band trip.

The student, Linda Brashear, had requested an open hearing before the board after she was removed from the activities. About 25 fellow students and adults attended the hearing, which was moved to the Ben Milam cafeteria.

Linda read a prepared statement to the board, telling about a prank call to one of the chartered bus drivers, and said the incident had been "blown out of proportion." She said she felt the disciplinary action was "unfair," and asked to be reinstated to the band and squad.

Yoe Principal John Chubb played a tape of interviews between the head bus driver, band director Jerry Bartley, Linda, and Chubb. Chubb called the incident a "moral issue," and said morality is changing, but "when people do wrong, we've got to have punishment."

Mrs. Jan Luecke said the school seemed to be more concerned about a bus driver's opinion than students' lives, saying such action could change a student's life. She added that "kids will do silly things on school trips."

Carol Barr asked Chubb if Linda had ever been involved before in anything that needed his discipline, and Chubb said Linda was an exemplary student.

Becky Magre also questioned the action and said she thought it was too severe.

Magre moved that Linda be reinstated and the motion was seconded by Barr. Upon the vote, she and Barr voted yes while negative votes were cast by Bill Hornung, Forrest Sapp and Lee Roy Doskocil.

In other business, board set August 29 as the opening day for the next school year, approved the same bus routes and approved ordering two new buses.

Trustees also approved adding a model building phase to industrial arts for second year high school students. Supt. Buddy Dulin explained that skills used in the building trades will be taught in the program.

Magre asked if trustees could be furnished with running totals on budget and spending and made a motion to that effect, but could not get a second.

In the discussion, Sapp said, "Whoever went by the budget?" and Magre asked why did the school make up a budget if it were not to be followed. Sapp said the state requires one. Magre said trustees should know how the money is spent.

Trustees accepted the resignation of Emma McDermott as school librarian, and approved hiring of Title I personnel and other teachers to fill vacancies.

Like A President...

President Carter has apparently disquieted, if not shocked liberal economists within his administration by advocating fiscal growth through the private sector and no new government spending programs.

Mr. Carter is looking at this early stage to re-election in 1980. And considering the edge over Gerald Ford, he is listening to Arthur Burns, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, whose retention in this Administration signaled Carter's fiscal conservatism and awareness that liberal credentials in other areas the next three years may otherwise dull that edge.

Burns was FRB chairman in the Ford Administration and is a Republican.

Traditional liberal voices like Hubert Humphrey are telling the President he cannot, as he hopes, balance the federal budget by 1981. Not because it won't be attempted, but because it is impossible to overhaul the federal money mentality in four years, Humphrey is saying.

Congress doesn't like the sound of Mr. Carter's stand which he has repeated for the record, starting with a loyal, liberal Walter Mondale, Carter's vice president and president of the Senate, who is saying nothing. Mondale is a protege of Senator Humphrey whose choice assuaged Northern Liberal and organized labor support to back Carter in the 1976 presidential election.

Mr. Carter is putting out an outline of liberal legislation and stands to convince liberal supporters he has ample credentials otherwise.

It is, upon reflection, not too surprising, according to White House spokesman. Mr. Carter said "50,000 times in the campaign" he was a fiscal conservative, one spokesman said.

And the President has a point. Democrats have advocated an inevitable "tax dividend" by expansionist government spending. But Carter economists say such a dividend has "all but disappeared" in continuing programs which grow and never stop.

We hope this argument is documented enough to convince Congress that an ultimate "either or" has occurred: either double digit inflation or a balanced budget.

As President, Mr. Carter is making a command decision, like a president.

"Low Down" FROM THE Congressional Record By JOE CRUMP

(A Column for Readers Who Haven't Time to Review the Congressional Record Daily)

TAXPAYERS HIT WITH $100,000 BALL BAT

Rep. William S. Broomfield (Mich.) "...On April 14, Joan Mondale, wife of the Vice President of the United States, headed a list of dignitaries unveiling one of the world's tallest sculptures on Chicago's West Side. It is a $100,000, 10-foot-tall 20-ton steel baseball bat which the U.S. Government erected in front of its new 10-story Social Security Administration building in Chicago that houses about 3,000 employees of the SSA's Bureau of Retirement and Survivors Insurance.

"The General Services Administration sets aside a portion of a building's estimated construction cost to provide new Federal buildings with contemporary artworks. Under this policy, Claes Oldenburg was commissioned for $100,000 to design, fabricate, and install the skyscraper-high baseball bat.

"I do not propose to pass judgement on the artistic merits of this towering structure, but I raise this question: Is it appropriate use of the tax funds paid by the working people of this country, especially at a time when every taxpayer is feeling the cruel pinch of the eroding purchasing power of every paycheck? I think not.

"In commissioning this project GSA has displayed great imagination in disbursering the hard-earned tax funds of the American people. At a time when more Americans are rightly demanding that the Federal Government show restraint in its spending, it offers an outrageous example of the irresponsible spending by the Government....

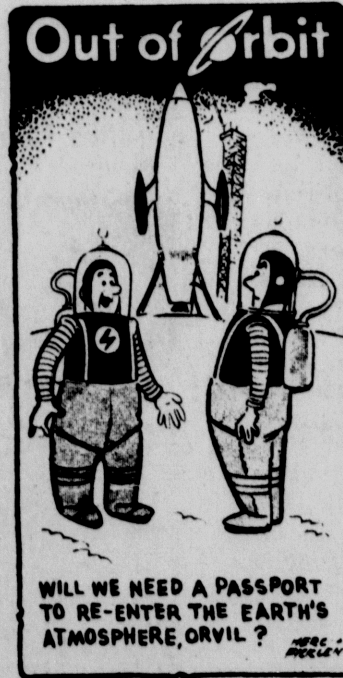

"It seems to me this is one of those programs with small well-intentioned and worthy beginnings that has mushroomed and gone far beyond its intended purpose. It should receive top priority in President Carter's zero base budgeting and congressional scrutiny. Some budget items may be 'uncontrollable,' but the baseball bat sculpture is convincing evidence the art-in-architecture program of the General Services Administration is a 'controllable' budget item...."

CRUMP'S GRASS ROOTS COMMENT

While President Carter, the Congress and the unions argue over a few pennies in increase in the minimum hourly wage; while billions are being appropriated to put the unemployed on the government payroll; the law allows the General Services Administration, at the taxpayers expense, to hoist a $100,000 20-ton 100 foot steel baseball bat in front of a government agency.

The taxpayers might be excused for believing the inmates have taken over the asylum.

Drug Injection Replaces 'Old Sparky'

The 53-year-old electric chair may have seen its last use in Texas.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe signed into law a bill which will substitute lethal drug injections for "Old Sparky" as the method of carrying out future death sentences.

Texas and Oklahoma are the first states to go to execution by drugs.

Both the Texas and Oklahoma laws actually are not effective until September 1. A Texas single execution is scheduled before that time — that of Robert Excel White on June 15.

Briscoe declined to say whether he would order a delay until the new law goes into effect in three months.

"I see this legislation as providing a more dignified and humane way of carrying out the death penalty," Briscoe commented in signing the bill.

Rep. Ben Z. Grant of Marshall and Sen. Bill Braecklin of Dallas sponsored the bill.

Efforts to abolish the death penalty have failed in the current session of the legislature.

The new law directs the director of the Texas Department of Corrections or someone he designates to carry out sentences of execution by injections of a "substance that will cause death."

"Old Sparky," which has killed more than 360 men, is expected to be donated to a museum.

Pay Bill Passes

A $369 million teacher pay bill won House approval by a lop-sided majority.

At the same time, House members voted to increase teacher retirement benefits by $213 million.

The pay bill would increase base salaries of beginning teachers from $8,000 to $9,024 the first year of the biennium and $9,384 the second year — about 12 per cent. A teacher with 21 years experience may get a raise of from $11,780 to $14,382 — 13 per cent. A six year teacher would get about six per cent increase.

Meanwhile, the Senate Education sub-committee is considering an $820 million overall school finance bill which would give teachers a $320 million raise — 5.1 per cent in 1978 and 3.4 per cent in 1979. The Senate also is considering a teacher retirement bill.

More Jobs

Texas Employment Commission detected substantial progress toward curbing unemployment during March.

About 5.1 per cent of the labor force was seeking jobs at that time.

That compares with 5.5 per cent in February and 6.1 per cent in March of 1976.

"While all segments of manufacturing and non-manufacturing experienced upturns from last month, non-manufacturing groups had the most significant increases," TEC noted in its statistical study.

The number of Texans out of jobs in March was at the lowest point since August 1975. A total of 286,000 Texans were jobless in March, TEC said.

Courts Speak

The Court of Criminal Appeals, acting on a state motion for rehearing, agreed to reconsider a Tarrant County murder conviction it reversed last month.

A Pasadena woman won an $87,242 damage verdict through a Supreme Court appeal against a Jack-in-the-Box restaurant which didn't act fast enough to get police to avoid a knife-wielding incident in which she was hurt.

The Supreme Court held 33 Beaumont policemen are not entitled to longevity raises frozen by the city council.

Lee Otis Johnson, once

sentenced to 30 years for sale of a single marijuana cigarette, lost a burglary conviction appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

An Austin man convicted of heroin possession won an appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals on grounds evidence was seized in an illegal search.

An El Paso robbery conviction was reversed by the same court due to statements by the jury foreman.

AG Opinions

A commissioners court has no authority to adjust the assessed value of land for a past year on the basis of an agricultural use affidavit filed subsequent to the original assessment, Atty. John Hill held.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

The legislature may constitutionally give municipal courts authority to grant injunctions to prevent city ordinance violations.

Conveyances and condemnation orders concerning Water Control and Improvement District property are not excepted from required public disclosure

Dear editor:

It isn't an earth-shaking problem but then very few problems are -- television reporters and headline writers just make them sound that way -- but over the years I've noticed a problem Presidents have when they emerge from an airplane and plunge into the crowd shaking hands with the people.

Everybody moves in eagerly with hands out -- stretched hoping to be able to tell their friends they shook hands with a President, but only about two per cent get to touch him. The rest are left holding out their hand fruitlessly.

There's a remedy for this problem. Have you ever seen a small boy walking along a picket fence with a stick in his hand, rattling each picket as he goes?

That's the answer. One of the planes accompanying a President should be equipped with a big roll of picket fence. Before the President steps out of his plane, the fence is un-rolled and the people told to line up behind it, each with one hand stuck through at about waist high.

The President then emerges and strides rapidly down the fence his right hand gliding over each outstretched hand as he passes. This way he gets to touch at least 50 times more hands than the old disorganized, crowd-around-him way, and it makes a lot less noise than a boy with a stick.

To avoid foul-ups where the crowd is longer than the fence, the Pentagon should always determine in advance the amount of fence needed for a given airport by computerizing the population of the place, the type of weather expected, and the estimated popularity of the President in that area. I'd suggest the Pentagon not use the computer it's been using to tell us how many guided missiles Russia has or how big her grain crop will be.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

WITH OUR CONNECTIONS, WE CAN SUPPLY ALL THE GAS YOU'LL NEED.

Lone Star's transmission pipeline system traverses or extends into counties shaded on this map.

Lone Star's existing gas reserves will meet the requirements of all of our customers for the next 12 years, based on 1976 consumption rates.

What about the future years — when these reserves are depleted?

Fortunately, Lone Star is in a position to buy new gas reserves that could last our customers far into the 21st century.

We're in the right place at the right time. And we have all of the right connections.

Lone Star's pipeline system enters eight of the nine major gas producing areas in Texas and Oklahoma.

Our transmission lines reach areas which contain over 50% of the remaining on-shore gas reserves in the continental U.S.

This strong network puts Lone Star in one of the most favorable buying positions of any natural gas company.

All we need is the money to buy ahead.

The price of gas will keep increasing, because producers will have to drill much deeper and more costly wells to develop new reserves.

It's going to take a lot of money to secure this area's share of these reserves. Unfortunately, Lone Star's ability to bid successfully for new gas reserves hinges greatly on the existence of adequate rates for the gas we sell.

The time to begin an aggressive resupply program is now, while we have a competitive buying edge and while economical gas is available.

With a fair return on our necessary investment, we can make the long-term financial commitments that will assure our customers all the natural gas they'll need for decades to come. And we will.

County Agent's Notes

Still Time To Spray Pecans

If you haven't already gotten the word you still have time to spray your pecan trees for the first generation of pecan nut casebearers. This small larvae is presently hatching from eggs laid on the small pecan nuts. He then drills into the base of the small nutlet destroying it and usually destroying an entire cluster.

In examining pecan trees last week, egg lay was occurring by May 9 which translates into spray dates of May 14 through May 20 for Milam County.

Commercial producers and commercial applicators have many materials they can use but what if you have one or two small trees you wish to treat yourself.

The following formula is quite suitable for homeowners using a 3 gallon sprayer. Use Malathion 50% emulsifiable concentrate at 2 1/2 tablespoons per 3 gallons of water; Cyprex 65% wettable powder at 3 tablespoons per 3 gallons of water, and 6 tablespoons Zinc Sulfate 68% wettable powder per 3 gallon mixture. These materials are all mixed in the spray container and applied at the same time.

If you have a pecan crop on your trees and miss the casebearer application you may not have to worry about harvesting this Fall. This insect is widely considered to be the number one pecan insect in Texas.

SOS means Stamp Out Screwworms and Texas is involved in a major effort to do just that in 1977.

Cooperation is needed by every livestock owner in watching livestock closely, managing insect injuries and cuts properly, and sending any suspected cases to the Mission Laboratory for proper identification.

Improvement In Cattle Prices Seen For Spring

Some improvement in cattle prices this spring and summer appears not only possible but highly probable, says a livestock marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Dr. Ed Uvacek points out that the improved outlook is a result of lower beef production, some decrease in pork output, the further increases in population and disposable income.

"Price rises for fed and feeder cattle should continue to be rather healthy through the second quarter of the year and into the early part of the third quarter," believes Uvacek. "However, there will be some weakening of prices into the fall and winter."

The specialist expects fed cattle prices to top out in July but to generally remain strong throughout the summer months.

He also points out that such strong fed cattle prices this spring could lead to increased feedlot placements and an oversupply of fed cattle by the end of the year.

"Total cattle slaughter was down 4 per cent during the first three months of this year, even though fed cattle marketings were up," notes the Texas A&M University System specialist. "This means considerably less cows and nonfeds are being slaughtered than a year ago."

"Feedlots intend to market about six million head during the second quarter -- April through June," notes Uvacek. "Since there is some indication that some cattle may have been marketed early, second quarter fed cattle marketings may even be lower than originally anticipated. Even the original estimate, though higher, would still produce only about 1 per cent more fed beef than a year ago. With further seasonal reductions expected in the slaughter of nonfed cattle and cows, beef production during this quarter could easily run 3 to 5 per cent below the same period a year ago," points out the specialist.

"Fed cattle marketings during the third calendar quarter should total 5.8 to 5.9 million head. This, coupled with lower pork and nonfed beef production, could sharply reduce total red meat supplies by the third quarter to levels below a year ago," adds Uvacek. "That's really encouraging and should keep price strength firm."

Registration Set For Beef Referendum

The U.S. Department of Agriculture has announced June 6 as the beginning of a two-week registration period for the Beef Research and Information Order referendum and issued rules for the referendum.

Anyone who was a cattle producer during 1976 can register to vote, either in person or by mail, at local ASCS offices between June 6 and June 17.

A list of those who register will be posted daily at ASCS offices and a final listing will be posted five days after registration closes.

Those registered can vote between July 5 and July 15 at their ASCS office. For approval of the Beef Research and Information Order, at least 50 per cent of those registered must vote, and two-thirds of them must favor it.

The earliest forerunner of the motor car is believed to be a three-wheeled steam-driven carriage built in 1769-70. It ran for about 20 minutes at two to three miles an hour.

Undecided Vote Key To Beef Checkoff

A survey of Texas beef producer attitudes indicates that the undecided vote is either or not the beef check-off program is activated, according to Dr. Ronald D. Knutson and Frank Ewell with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Knutson, a specialist in policy and marketing, and his assistant Ewell base their conclusion on responses to a survey of producer attitudes toward current policy issues in agriculture. The sample included about 450 Texas beef producers. At the time of the survey 53 per cent favored the checkoff, 30 per cent were opposed and 17 per cent were neutral or undecided.

While the President has signed the beef checkoff program into law, at least 50 per cent of the producers who register must vote in the referendum and two-thirds of those must vote in favor of it before the checkoff actually begins, point out Knutson and Ewell. Registration dates for the referendum are set for June 6-17, and voting will be from July 5-15.

The survey also showed that 53 per cent of the producers felt they should have the right to request a refund from the program. This refund provision is provided for in the legislation if the refund demand is made within 60 days after the end of the month in which an assessment was made.

Sixty-five per cent of the producers surveyed favored voting on the basis of a single vote per producer. This is also provided for in the legislation, not Knutson and Ewell.

Regarding the use of promotion monies, 62 per cent of the producers surveyed indicated they opposed the use of producer promotion funds to assist packers and retailers to advertise their own brands of beef. This contrasts with advertising specialists who contend that joint advertising programs would be more effective in expanding demand than advertising beef alone.

Soybeans Gain During Month

AUSTIN--While soybeans and sorghum prices strengthened during the month ending April 15, the average prices received for all Texas crops decreased 1 per cent, according to the Texas Department of Agriculture.

Soybeans jumped $1.74 a bushel in one month, up to $9.08. "This price is quite a contrast to the $4.26 a bushel last year in April," Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown said. Grain sorghum moved up 7 cents to $3.69 a hundredweight (cwt).

Brown said that despite the worldwide demand for cotton, prices dropped 2.8 cents from March averages to 66.4 cents a pound in April.

Bids Due For Highway Work

Bids for reconditioning roads in Milam County will be received May 18-19 by the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation.

From the Missouri Pacific Railroad in Rockdale southward to the Burleson County line, FM 908 will be scarified, reshaped and also be in charge of work on three highways in Robertson and Milam counties.

The project includes scarifying, reshaping and compacting existing base where base failure has occurred on SH 14 from FM 2413 to the Falls County line, a distance of 6.8 miles. A one-course surface treatment will be applied.

Similar reconditioning will be done to FM 979 from 3.3 miles northeast of FM 485 to the west end of the Brazos River bridge and from SH 14 to FM 978; and also from FM 229 from FM 485 northeastward 3.3 miles.

Bids for rehabilitation of three highways in Williamson and Milam counties will also be received May 18-19.

The project consists of placing approximately four inches of compacted base over the existing pavement and a two-course surface treatment. The work will strengthen the roadbed and provide a more comfortable ride for motorists.

Under the overall direction of District Engineer Travis Long, Roland E. Gamble, Austin, will be in direct charge of the project.

Ogg Bill Denies Bail For Repeats

Sen. Jack Ogg announced final passage by the Texas Legislature of Senate Joint Resolution 3, which proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution which would allow judges to deny bail to repeat offenders.

"A significant portion of the crimes in our state are committed by those who are free on bail at the time of the offense. This is especially true of the crimes of theft and burglary for a criminal to raise bail, or support a drug habit," the Houston Senator stated.

"This will help relieve that threat to society."

There are safeguards to preserve the constitutional rights of the accused. An order denying bail must be issued within 7 days of a person's incarceration for the second offense and the order is only effective for a period of 60 days. Furthermore, an appeal from an order denying bail must be given top priority by the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals.

The proposed amendment will be submitted to the people of Texas for their approval in November of this year.

Transportation Week To Be Observed

By official memorandum today, Governor Dolph Briscoe named the week of May 15-21 as Transportation Week in Texas.

The governor said Texans "in a measure larger than most Americans," must be able to move freely across the great distances of the state.

The five modes of transportation - highway, rail, air, water and pipeline - are such in Texas that they generate 30 per cent of the total state product.

The observance is sponsored by Traffic Clubs International in cooperation with the American Association of State Highway and Transportation Officials.

Local traffic clubs in Texas, the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation and the Texas Good Roads Transportation Association are participating in the observance in Texas.

"Nothing affects the lives of every citizen as transportation does," the governor noted in his official statement.

Homemaker Hints

The difference between a party that people flip over and one that's a flop could be something as simple as the proper advance planning.

Civic Garden Club Presents "Hats Of Yesteryear" At Meeting

The members of the Civic Garden Club held their final meeting of the year on Thursday, May 12 at the home of Mrs. Eunice Lawrence with Mrs. Evelyn Hearne as co-hostess.

The program of the day was "Hats of Yesteryear" rededicated with either fresh garden flowers or vegetables. Each member modeled her exhibit giving a description of it, some in rhyme and song.

At the conclusion of the presentations, the members voted for the best exhibit in these three categories, the most beautiful, the best for originality and the most stylish for the period in which it was worn.

The hat worn by the senior member of the club, Mrs. W.M. Fanning, was voted the most beautiful. The brim of the hat was attractively fashioned with green loutou leaves and the band was formed with rolled plant material. The back turned up and one large pink hollyhock blossom adorned that area. Mrs. Fanning was also dressed appropriately with a long dress, high neck fashion and leg-o-mutton sleeves.

"The lonely Petunia in an Onion Patch" designed by Mrs. Theo Aschenbeck, was the hat showing the most originality. The top was completely encircled with fresh green onions, the tops covering the brim and the white parts forming the crown. A single purple petunia nestled on the top. The most stylish hat for small model with high crown and adorned with bronzed day-lilies was by Mrs. Leo Fuchs.

Each winner was presented with plants in a pretty container, suitable for hanging baskets.

In a short business session, conducted by the president, Mrs. Aschenbeck, the members voted to make a contribution of $25 to the Milam County Museum, welcomed Mrs. Franklin Drgac as a new member to the club and made plans for the 1977-78 year.

Installation of officers for the next year followed with Mrs. W.M. Fanning as the installing officer. She used a "Sun Bonnet Ceremony", presented each officer with a small bonnet and explained its purpose as to color and duty relative to the office. Those installed are as follows - Mrs. Leo Fuchs, President; Mrs. Evelyn Hearne, vice president; Mrs. M.H. Wimberly, recording secretary; Mrs. Eunice Lawrence, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Jack Bigham, treasurer; Mrs. Theo Aschenbeck, parliamentarian; Mrs. W.M. Fanning, historian; and Mrs. B.D. Clark timekeeper.

Following the meeting proper, the group enjoyed a "no host" luncheon.

Ready, Set, Go!

Not so long ago there were two of you. Now there are three, and you can almost see your baby grow from day to day. You get to thinking about it. Soon he'll be walking, talking, asking questions.

Are you ready to answer them? Or, are you confused? Wondering the way the world is going, just where it is going to go?

The Church isn't going to give you a set of printed answers. But it will give you something much more valuable. It will help to start working out those answers for yourself.

Try it.

High Potency Vitamin E

Sexual Potency Quickly Improves With New 'E-Pill'

NEW YORK, N.Y. (Special) - An amazing new "super-charged" vitamin E-Pill has recently been developed that reportedly "quickly increases and rejuvenates sexual drives and potency for both men and women of all ages. It also makes them feel healthier and more youthful". It is now available to the American public.

The new high potency E-Pill not only seems to increase sexual ability of both sexes but also "actually perks up sexual interest and stimulates a persons desires," according to a spokesman for the manufacturer.

ALSO IMPROVES GENERAL HEALTH.
This new, easy-to-take E-Pill contains newly formulated, highly concentrated vitamin E. It tends to quickly build up and strengthen the natural physiological processes of the body that are believed to be basically responsible for its potency, youthfulness, health and long life.

HELPS 4 OUT OF 5 PEOPLE
Indications are that the new E-Pill gives quick and effective results to as high as 4 out of 5 people (80%) who have used it. Some people report no great change but feel the high potency of vitamin E in the pill does quickly make them feel better from a general health standpoint. Other reports also show it tends to "lessen daily tension and give a more relaxed, happier outlook on life."

NOW AVAILABLE
The use of these high potency (one-a-day) E-Pills is perfectly safe and are now available without prescription from the manufacturer by mail order only. To get your supply, send $6.95 for a 2 week supply, (or $10.95 for a 30 day supply, or $17.95 for a 60 day supply) cash, check or M.O. to:

A 10-minute call to San Francisco doesn't take a lot of dough.

For just $2.44 or less, you could take down these recipes by Long Distance.

We're printing these recipes to make a point: a Long Distance call lets you say so much, for so little.

In a 10-minute phone call to San Francisco, between 5 p.m. and 11:00 p.m. tonight, you could take down the recipes below. And by dialing 1+, the most you pay is $2.44, plus tax.

So enjoy a pleasant visit tonight by Long Distance. Whether you call to get a couple recipes... or just to find out what's cookin'.

1. SOURDOUGH STARTER

1 package active dry yeast
2 1/2 cups warm water (105° to 115°)
1 cup instant nonfat dry milk
2 tablespoons sugar
4 cups all-purpose flour

a) Stir yeast, water, dry milk and sugar in 2 1/2 quart crock or non-metallic bowl until yeast is dissolved. Stir in flour gradually until a smooth batter forms. Let stand loosely covered in warm place, 3 to 5 days. Stir down batter occasionally. Store loosely covered in refrigerator.

b) Replace exact amount of starter used for each recipe by stirring equal amounts of homogenized milk and flour back into starter. (For example, replace 1 cup starter with 1/2 cup homogenized milk and 1/2 cup flour). Let stand loosely covered until it bubbles, overnight. Stir down. Each time this process is repeated, the starter becomes more active and develops a more sour flavor. Note: if stored as much as two to three weeks between usings, just pour off the watery layer on top and replace following procedure in (b).

2. SOURDOUGH BREAD STICKS

1 cup instant nonfat dry milk
1 cup warm water (105° to 115°)
1 cup Sourdough Starter (see Recipe No. 1)
2 cups all-purpose flour
3 tablespoons vegetable oil
2 teaspoons salt
2 teaspoons sugar
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 to 1 cup all-purpose flour
1/4 cup butter or margarine, melted

a) Mix dry milk, water, Sourdough Starter and 2 cups flour in non-metallic bowl, cover loosely. Let stand in warm place until mixture is coarse and bubbly, at least 8 hours.

b) Mix oil, salt, sugar and baking soda into sourdough mixture. Stir in enough of the remaining flour to make dough easy to handle. Knead dough lightly on well-floured board, about 2 minutes.

c) Roll dough into rectangle, 15 x 10 inches, on well-floured board. Cut into fifteen 1-inch strips. Roll each strip into even round strand about 14 inches long. Double strand over and twist to form bread stick. Place bread sticks on greased baking sheet, brush with melted butter. Cover with plastic wrap. Let rise in warm place until double, 1 to 1 1/2 hours.

d) Heat oven to 375°. Bake bread sticks until golden brown, 30 to 35 minutes. (Makes 15).
